The High Ops Challenge™

Cool Spring's Team Development Course

Cool Spring Center's one-of-a-kind team development course, The High Ops Challenge is like nothing you've ever done before.

Leaders in experiential corporate education and Cool Spring's leadership team have designed our truly unique campus. In this safe environment, your team will practice new skills and transfer learning back to the workplace.

Targeted Outcomes:

- ◆ Successful, productive team work
- ◆ Self confidence among team members
- ◆ Strong relationships to support rapid problem solving
- ◆ Effective, trustworthy communication

The High Ops Challenge is custom designed to fit your needs and goals. We utilize both low and high course work, high-tech, computer-driven directives, and adventure orienteering skills. The training is designed for people of all ability levels--everyone is engaged for the entire experience. Integrated into High Ops is a critical full-team debriefing that pinpoints specific learning models and develops an action plan for incorporating them into the workplace environment. The team emerges smarter, tighter, more confident and ready for success.
