CHARLOTTE, NC
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
March 30, 2007

Charles Page, President, Cool Spring Center, has completed the training and consulting process for Building Better Boards governance consulting, sponsored by the Executive Service Corps of the Charlotte Region.

Building Better Boards is a new nonprofit board development initiative offered by Executive Service Corps of the Charlotte Region and sponsored by the Foundation For The Carolinas' Center for Nonprofits. As a new resource for nonprofit organizations, it is designed to promote excellence in board governance and provide the resources necessary for continuing board development by:

- Providing a formal assessment of board functioning;
- Providing access to resources to address identified areas of need; and
- Providing intensive board development and intervention by qualified governance consultants.

Cool Spring Center works with companies and organizations that want to develop and implement sustained improvement in the workplace.
