FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
July 2006

BIZlife Magazine, published in Greensboro, NC, featured the Victory Junction Gang Camp in Randleman in their July 2006 issue. The full-page picture introducing the article features Charles Page, President of Cool Spring Center, preparing to take one of the campers for a hot air balloon ride. Charles and his wife, Kristie, volunteer at the camp each year with their hot air balloon, Big Oh!

The Victory Junction Gang Camp was founded by Kyle and Pattie Petty, in honor of their son Adam. The camp enriches the lives of children with chronic medical conditions or serious illnesses by providing life-changing camping experiences that are exciting, fun and empowering, in a safe and medically-sound environment. Victory Junction is a year-round camp that serves children, ages 7 to 15, dealing with a variety of health issues. Each week during the summer disease-specific sessions are offered, with up to 125 children attending weekly.

Cool Spring Center works with companies and organizations that want to develop and implement sustained improvement in the workplace.
